

THE RIVER OF EVEREST DUDH KOSHI EXPEDITION

Dudh Koshi River stands as one of Nepal's rarely paddled rivers. Its remote access & powerful white water have kept this river wild, challenging, and largely untouched. This expedition offers experienced paddlers a rare opportunity to explore the lower section of Dudh Koshi, continuing downstream into the Sun Koshi River. This raft and kayak supported journey delivers an exceptional multi-day paddling experience.

Itinerary

Day 1 – Arrival in Kathmandu

Arrive in Kathmandu, our guide will receive you at the airport and transferred to your hotel. In the evening, meet the group for dinner and pre-departure briefing by our trip leader.

Day 2-3 Overland Journey to the River

The overland journey begins to Rabuwa Khola, the put-in point. Travel through remote terrain, setting the tone for a true expedition style overlanding.

Day 4-6 Dudh Koshi

Launching onto the lower Dudh Koshi, paddling Class II, III water in a remote landscapes. Continue downstream to the confluence with the Sun Koshi, camping at the Little Rajasthan Beach.

Day 7 - Jaws & Dead Man's Eddy

Early start to run the famous Jaws and Dead Man's Eddy section of the rapids. The afternoon features a series of exciting class III rapids before making camp above Rhino Rock.

Day 8 - Rhino Rock & Jungle Corridor

A game day on the river. Run Rhino Rock and the powerful white water of the Jungle Corridor. Lunch at Waterfall Beach, followed by a relaxed afternoon paddle to Sunshine Camp.

Day 9 - Rest Day at Sunshine Camp

A well earned rest day to relax, swim, explore, or enjoy optional short kayaking sessions for interested rafters at Sunshine Camp.

Day 10 - Classic Sun Koshi River

Early start and paddle through scenic section of Sun Koshi, enjoying big-volume water and long wave trains. Camp below Big deeper near the Arun and Tamur confluence.

Day 11 - Take-Out & Flight to Kathmandu

Final paddle to the take-out at Chatara. During the paddle, stay away from the motor boat! At the take out, Pack equipment and transfer to Biratnagar, followed by an afternoon flight to Kathmandu.

Day 12 - Leisure day in Kathmandu

Back in Kathmandu, the day is free for rest. In the evening, we gather for a farewell dinner to celebrate the expedition.

Day 13 - Departure Home

Transfer to the airport for onward travel.

Expedition cost: 3100 USD

Including:

Airport pickup & Drop, 3 night Hotel
River Expedition: Fully supported Expedition as per itinerary, Domestics Flights raft support, River leader, safety boaters, kitchen crew, camping and kitchen equipment, all meals while on the river and our office team for back up.

Excluding: International flights, VISA, personal insurance, tips to guides and support team, Meals in Kathmandu.